(start belt #5)

with the tide, consider this a lost session from this point on and those that want to stull and spend all of the time, help them in it. Go ahead. Then you won't have the headache and the potential ulcers for nothing. Understand this. You can not solve a problem by keeping it in your mind, by having little conferences off to the side as to what ought to be done. If we are going to do something to change the course of events in the legislature, and I'm not going to talk longer than 10 minutes, we are going to have to do it on this floor. So here is my serious recommendation. Any of you who are upset about the way things are going, I'm going to give you an opportunity to stand up and be men this morning and Mrs. Marsh I'm not being a sexist, but most of the people here are men, and do something about a bill which is important enough then the ADC bill. The Governor sounds like me now, because he is giving the arguments which I gave which he would not listen to when I said there are not folks among the children on ADC, they are not folks at the penitentiary and when I gave these arguments in the past on bills that he promised to veto he was unresponsive now he steals my stuff and look at the thunder he steals as a result of it. He makes it seem as though he were intelligent. It sounds as if he has an imagination and it appears that he has sensitivity and I am more offended when somebody steals my stuff like this and doesn't give me credit for it then I am about being called a Democrat when I am an independent. So I am going to talk to Senator Schmit and we are going to find the appropriate time to see if the Governor means what he says about funding ADC, if other members of this body mean what they say when they are speaking against the child care bill and we are going to try and move the bill above everything else, so that it can be considered and the rest of the time be or the rest of the remaining time can be squandered. That is what I promise you to do, either today or Monday at the latest. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Now what other motions do we have on the desk?

CLERK: Read reports

PRESIDENT: Read the motions on the desk.

CLERK: Read.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Mahoney.

SENATOR MAHONEY: Mr. President, the same amount as past years, no change, just ask the legislature to vote on it.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion of the motion? Question is do you want to authorize the motion? All those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote no. Motion is for the authorization of stamps. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays.

PRESIDENT: Motion is carried, what other motions do you have on the desk?
